Otto's Constant Dream

'08 Pinot Noir

$16.99/15.29*

Here's a Pinot Noir from the Marlborough region in New Zealand.

It's funny, the original name for this wine was to be OCD, but it did not pass with the BATF (Bureau of Tobacco and Firearms), believe it or not, wine labels fall under their auspices!

That aside, this wine is a rich and complex Pinot with nice notes of dark cherry fruit, toasty oak, and spice. Soon, it will be all you can think about!

Latitude 41

'06 Pinot Noir

$19.99/17.99*

Stunning wine from New Zealand's South Island. Great complexity, and depth, with hints of smoke and great cherry fruit! The vineyard is situated along Latitude 41. I'm sure you'll find this off the charts!

Concannon

'06 Pinot Noir

$13.99/12.59*

Concannon has been a favorite on our shelves for years. This medium bodied Pinot has beautiful fruit from start to finish! This pairs quite well with Ham, Lamb, Salmon, and Veal! That's not to say it isn't great on it's own or even with a hunk of cheese...because it sure is!

Rick's Super Pick!

Lustau

Moscatel

$33.99/30.59

Lustau...I just can't give this winery higher accolades, they produce superior sherry! Here is another shining example! This Moscatel is the ultimate dessert, or dessert wine! One sip and you'll be hooked!
